

Formal Consent for Confidential Information Sharing with a Third Party

Doctors and staff at Cricketfield Surgery often have husbands, wives, partners, Carers etc. asking for confidential information which they cannot disclose without formal consent from the patient.

It can often appear that the staff member is being obstructive and unhelpful when they are in actual fact simply complying with NHS and Government recommendations to safeguard the confidentiality of patient information.

It is vital that patients have confidence that their health records are safely kept in the strictest confidence and that if information is shared they have given their prior consent to this.

If you want to give Third Party Consent please complete the form below.
